

I believe wisconsin should retain its no-call law regarding telemarketers. We already have an excellent state law that should be a hallmark for other states and the federal govt. It is not necessary to lower our standard. Leave it alone.